Practice Overview

Ben has a busy practice across Chambers' specialisms and is regularly involved in disputes arising out of large-scale construction and infrastructure projects and high-value procurement challenges. Ben's cases include domestic and international work. He works with large legal teams and also appears in his own right in the High Court, County Court and as part of his busy adjudication practice. Ben is a contributor to Keating on JCT Contracts and is familiar with many other standard form contracts including the NEC and JChemE forms.

Recent highlights include:

- Representing HS2 in (a) two separate procurement challenges brought in relation to a £2.75bn rolling stock contract, the second of which culminated in a 4-week TCC trial in November-December 2022; and (b) Bechtel Limited v High Speed Two [2021] EWHC 458 (TCC), a three-week TCC trial which concerned the procurement of a £1bn+ contract for the construction of Old Oak Common Station.
 - Two international arbitrations concerning the design and construction of two semi-submersible offshore drilling rigs.
 - Defending a building developer against a £10m claim relating to water ingress in 4 blocks of flats.
 - Acting as sole counsel in an adjudication, successfully resisting a £1.8m claim for liquidated damages for the allegedly poor performance of an anaerobic digestion plant.
 - Acting as sole counsel in the High Court in Quadro v Creagh [2021] EWHC 2637 (TCC), seeking to resist the enforcement of an adjudicator's award on the basis of a jurisdictional objection.
